WESTON

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE)
WESTON, Aug. 24.—P. K. Teter, who recently sold the lot on which his livery and boarding barn stands, to W. C. Weber and B. E. Wells, who will erect a garage on the site, has purchased from Kirk C. Smith 214 acres of the Edgar W. Smith farm on Smith's run. This is one of the oldest landed estates in Lewis county. It came into the possession of Mark Smith 110 years ago, and has been continuously in the hands of the family ever since, being handed down by direct descent from father to son. Mark Smith owned it for more than thirty years, and then it was sold by his son, Abram Smith, who likewise owned it for more than thirty years. Then Edgar Smith became its owner, and for forty-two years he was in charge, deeding it to his son, Kirk C. Smith, a year or two ago. Mr. Teter has for some years been engaged in the breeding and selling of Shetland ponies, and he will move the barn from the lot in this city, rebuild it on the Smith farm and use it for his ponies.

Coleman Peters, a well known business man of Copley, is spending a few days in the city taking treatment from a local specialist for an affection of the left ear, from which ailment he has been suffering a few weeks.

Rufus F. Morrison will leave this week for Parsons to attend the annual assembly of the West Virginia Conference of the Methodist Protestant church. Mr. Morrison is the delegate from the local church.

Charles P. Cottrill and daughter, Miss Estey, of St. Mary's, are here visiting relatives.

Ex-Sheriff O. A. Hefner, of Grafton, was in the city on business Saturday. He went to Orlando to spend Sunday with relatives and expected to return Monday.

Daniel Fultner, of Crawford, this county, was in the city Saturday on his way to Buckhannon, where he will make his future home.

Numerous Weston people were out of town Saturday night attending church festivals at Camden and Rohrbaugh.

Joseph N. Craddock of the Glenville Pathfinders' office, was in the city on business last week.

Mrs. Fred S. Ballard, of Richwood, is visiting relatives here.

Headquarters For Luggage, Trunks, Traveling Bags and Suit Cases

Do you know that every Indestructo trunk is guaranteed for five years?

Does this mean that if an Indestructo trunk is damaged by careless handling within five years after your purchase, we will repair or replace it without charge?

It does.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Senator Elkins Entertains.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 24.—Former Senator Davis Elkins is entertaining a large house party at his home, Hallehurst, at Elkins, W. Va. at which several Washington people are in attendance. Lieut. Commander James B. Gilmer, United States Army, left here at the end of the week to join the party.

Bride of a Jap.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 24.—Japanese diplomatic circles in Washington have been considerably interested in the marriage of Miss Margaret Lynn Fishburne, of Leesburg, Va., to John Armstrong Welbourne, of Tokio, Japan, which took place at St. James Protestant Episcopal church in Leesburg, Va., last week. Mr. Welbourne has been engaged in missionary work in Tokio for the last fifteen years and during that time has won an enviable position in the affairs of the Japanese empire.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. William H. Burkhardt, rector of the church, assisted by the Rev. Edwin B. Niver, of Baltimore. The bride, who is one of Virginia's fairest beauties, was attended by Miss Mary Peterkin, daughter of Bishop George W. Peterkin, of Parkersburg, W. Va. Mr. and Mrs. Welbourne expect to sail on the Siberia from San Francisco, September 5, and will make their home in Tokio.

Birthday Celebration.
Mrs. Sabina Sutton, residing on Simpson Creek, Sunday passed her eighty-second birthday anniversary. In celebration of the happy event, a large family reunion was held at her home, at which four generations were represented. Mrs. Sutton, who is enjoying excellent health for one so far advanced in years, was in the best of spirits, and the occasion was a very happy one for her. A big dinner was a feature of the day's celebration. Present at the festivity were Mrs. Sutton's four children and their families. Three of her children were unable to attend, they living at a distance. The children attending were Mrs. W. B. Snodgrass, Mrs. John Sutton, Mrs. Bina Palmer and Mr. Thornton Sutton. This present from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Snodgrass, of Fairview; Mr. and Mrs. John Sutton and family, of Simpson Creek; Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Brown, of Clarksburg; Mrs. Homer Brown and daughter, of Toledo, O.; Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hendrickson, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Boyer and daughters, of Fairmont. A picture was taken of representatives of the four generations, including Mrs. Sutton, her daughter, Mrs. W. B. Snodgrass, her granddaughter, Mrs. C. K. Boyer, and the latter's little daughter Thelma Boyer.

To Give Lawn Fete.
The Ladies' of Charity of the immaculate Conception church will hold a lawn fete on the lawn at the church rectory Wednesday evening from 5 until 10:30 o'clock. The ladies will start serving at 5 o'clock in order to give persons who do not attend the social a chance to buy ice cream and cake to take home for their supper. The receipts of the affair will go to the building fund of the St. Mary's high school.

Social Tea.
The Ladies' Aid Society of the First Methodist Episcopal church will be entertained from 3 to 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon at a social tea in the church parlors by Mesdames Kincaid, Hoffman, Lawson and Eaton.
